

PARIS SPEECH OF ROOSEVELT

AMERICAN TEACHES THE WORLD HOW TO LIVE RIGHT

WHOLE CABINET, STUDENTS AND NOTABLES ENTHUSIASTIC

PARIS, April 23.—Colonel Roosevelt, ex-President of the United States, delivered a speech in the Sorbonne in this city today, which will go down in history as probably the most stupendous utterance which ever greeted European ears.

The entire French cabinet attended, every member hanging on each word of the great American with evidences of the utmost appreciation.

Students of all the great institutions of France and of neighboring countries were in attendance, finding significance in each sentence.

The immense hall was filled with notables and the enthusiasm which prevailed was unprecedented.

Never has such a sensation stirred Paris.

Roosevelt spoke in full as follows:

Strange and impressive associations rise in the mind of a man from the New World who speaks before the French cabinet, before the students of this august body in this ancient institution of learning. Before his eyes pass the shadows of mighty kings and warlike nobles, of great masters of law and theology; through the shining dust of the dead centuries he sees crowded figures that tell of the power and learning and splendor of times gone by; and he sees also the innumerable host of humble students to whom clerkship meant emancipation, to whom it was well nigh the only outlet from the dark thralldom of the Middle Ages.

This was the most famous university of mediaeval Europe at a time when no one dreamed that there was a new world to discover. Its services to the cause of human knowledge already stretched far back into the remote past at the time when my forefathers, three centuries ago, were among the sparse bands of traders,

STRIKE LEADERS DENY SENSATION

Editor Star: We were surprised this morning when the Advertiser was shown to us by Mr. Asch, the jailor, in which appeared a statement to the effect that we were "in touch" with a movement looking for a strike on a large scale in plantations of the territory.

We want to state that it is absolutely false that we are "in touch" with any movement outside. We do not know that a labor organization is started anywhere in the territory. We know that our sympathizers are not planning anything of the kind. It is true that we have a large number of visitors on Sundays but then our conversation is confined to the exchange of friendly sentiments and feeling. We have not heard from our many visitors anything about the alleged organization or the alleged strike.

The alleged statement may be traced to the same source whence emanated the threatening unsigned letters to Judge De Bolt and Mr. Kinney just before the end of our trial and the statement that we were encouraging lawbreakers when our appeal to the Supreme Court was about to be decided. As those statements were untrue and intended to injure our case, so the statement which appeared in this morning's Advertiser is absolutely false and only intended to misrepresent and injure us.

Yours respectfully,

F. K. MAKINO.
M. NEGORO.
Y. TASAKO.

COOKE TO MOLOKAI.

Clarence H. Cooke, president of the Bank of Hawaii, left yesterday for Molokai to look over the property of the American Sugar Company, which has been converted into a ranch. He will be absent from the city a week.

KICK AGAINST INSURANCE RATES

EDITOR STAR: Are the merchants and business men of Honolulu going to stand this continued advance in insurance rates? Just think of eight per cent for insurance in Chinatown! It's enough to drive one out of business. And the house that gives credit to the insured must in the end help pay the rates. Where is the Merchants' Association that it makes no protest? Are there too many in the business themselves? It is high time some action was taken in the way of a protest or kick. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are taken out of the territory in the way of premiums and the loss by fires are trifling. How is it that our insurance combine can exist in face of the law against combinations?

KILOHANA ART LEAGUE.

A May festival will be given on Saturday next from 2 to 6 p. m. by the Kilohana Art League, at "Ainahu," the sylvan residence of Hon. A. S. Cleghorn, Waikiki.

Many features are planned, including a May pole. At the souvenir booth will be issued ribbons bearing the autograph of Queen Liliuokalani. It is hoped that her majesty will be able to attend the festival. There will also be obtainable photos of "Ainahu," with the poem in which Robert Louis Stevenson immortalized the beauties of the place.

Members of the College Club will form the retinue of the May queen, yet to be chosen. They will be dressed in old English costume. Palmistry will be practiced by a gypsy in the woods. Little Virginia Frear and Newton Peck with cornucopias will lure the folks attending to the various attractions.

Committees for the festival are the following:

Grounds—Governor Cleghorn, Mrs. Schaefer, Prof. Gilmore.
Finance—A. Gartley, Mrs. Galt, Miss McIntyre.
Entertainment—Mrs. Bicknell, Mrs. Tucker, Mrs. Schaefer.
Booths—Mr. Newcomb, Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, Mrs. E. A. Mott-Smith.

MRS. HAYNES WET A BABY

Mrs. Haynes of Kaimuki is under arrest on charge of a Portuguese neighbor who alleges that she is guilty of malicious injury to wit, that she played a hose on a baby and wet a lot of window curtains and sofa-pillows. But J. Lightfoot, the lawyer, represents Mrs. Haynes.

It seems that the Haynes' neighbors are inclined to be disagreeable. They picked a picket from the fence and let in their chickens to the yard of the charming Mrs. Haynes. Then, the neighbors allege, Mrs. Haynes

POLICE SURE OF GRACE

A white man employed by the government at Puloa while waiting this morning to look out towards the canefields back of the station and saw Anderson Grace crawling along, trying to get out of sight. He immediately ran to the nearest telephone and called up Ewa court house where the message was sent in to Honolulu.

Chief McDuffie and his men left five minutes after the call was received in an automobile, bound for Puloa, where they are confident that Grace will be found before the day is up.

The man is certain that Grace is still around the canefields and will give the exact position to the police where he saw the murderer. The whole force were out last night, looking for Grace, but not the slightest clue was obtained.

LIGHT CASE OF SMALLPOX

In spite of the delay in arriving, the Pacific Mail liner Asia which arrived off port this morning reports good weather the entire way from Yokohama, which would indicate that she took a different course from the Dix. One light case of smallpox which developed in the steerage before the ship reached Yokohama will cause the ship to be fumigated here before she is allowed to proceed to San Francisco.

Twenty-six Filipinos, seven Chinese, twelve Japanese, one Hindu and four first class passengers are for Honolulu.

The ship will come alongside of the quarantine wharf as soon as the doctors are through with their inspection; the first class passengers being allowed to come ashore this afternoon.

Passengers for Honolulu are: L. and C. H. Dickey, H. E. Walker and K. Kiyama.

THREATENED THE BIG BUGS

C. H. Alton, who is working on the new University Club, was arrested this morning on a complaint sworn to by Paul Akona, charging him with the larceny of six wooden stair horses. Alton was very much worked up over the matter and threatened to bring several prominent people in court whom he claims caused his arrest.

Alton was represented by his attorney C. W. Ashford, who secured a continuance until Monday.

Four gamblers were discharged, as not enough evidence was at hand to convict them. The charge of vagrancy against Ellza was also ordered stricken from the calendar.

One drunk was fined $4, the rest of the cases being continued.

threw her garden rubbish over the fence into the neighbor's yard. It is a sad story, but Mrs. Haynes seems to be in the right. Next week the police court will hear the matter.
